4th Annual Chili's Street Dance

The 25th Annual Tomato Fest will be on June 13th starting at 9a.m. That night you can be entertained with the 4th Annual Chili's Street Dance with entertainment from Rick Alviti, Tribute to Elvis, Sly John's Motown Review, and Rock Legends Tributes from Wayne King and Steve Boado. The theme of this year's street dance is a flashback throughout the years. This great night of entertainment is brought to you by Autry Design, Bill McRae Ford, Chili's, Boogie Butt Productions, Oncor, Suddenlink, Texas Lottery, Trinity Mother Frances Hospital, and Wal-Mart. The excitement will begin at 7p.m. and carry on until 11p.m.

Rick Alviti has performed on many TV shows and appeared in movies. He is America's leading and most respected Tribute artist in the country today. His tribute to Elvis is flawless. His admiration for the King is apparent to all that have seen him. He has appeared on such shows as Elvis is Alive and the award winning ER with George Clooney and One Tree Hill. He also has appeared in many music videos. He has done many benefit shows and is the spokesperson for the SC Alzheimer's Association. Rick Alviti is a gentleman's gentleman. When you see his Tribute to Elvis, you will be on your feet for more!
